GATHERING

GATHERING MUSIC:

Led by band

GATHERING SONG: Bless the Lord, my soul STCW #62

GREETING:

B. Susan: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

LITANY:

Deacon: As we gather for Word and Sacrament before we take our leave, we give thanks for the teachings that have been shared, and we pray:

Grace us to attend to how we read,
mindful that our reading is both marked by hope and marred by sin.

Grace us to make neighbouring a verb, describing our resolute decision to be, in solidarity, near the wounded and the suffering whom we encounter in our journeys on the Way.

Grace us to pause and reflect on who and what we deem insignificant,
on who and what we render invisible and voiceless.

Grace us to see the face of our sibling in the face of every human being
and to be sensitive to their touch.

Grace us to refuse the Grow or Die lie that reduces the earth to a commodity
and human beings to a means to the end of profit.

Grace us to live out our unbounded freedom in Jesus Christ and our radical commitment to neighbour and all of creation.
Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

B. Susan: O God of creation, eternal majesty, you preside over land and sea, sunshine and storm. By your strength pilot us, by your power preserve us, by your wisdom instruct us, and by your hand protect us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

WORD

READING: Job 38:1-11

Reader 1: A reading from Job

Reader 1: ¹Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:

Reader 2: ²‘Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?

³Gird up your loins like a man,
I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

Reader 3: ⁴‘Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.

Reader 4: ⁵Who determined its measurements—surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?

Reader 5: ⁶On what were its bases sunk,
or who laid its cornerstone ⁷when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

Reader 6: ⁸‘Or who shut in the sea with doors
when it burst out from the womb?—
⁹when I made the clouds its garment,

Reader 7: and thick darkness its swaddling band, ¹⁰and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors,

Reader 2: ¹¹and said, “Thus far shall you come, and no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stopped”?

Reader 1: Word of God, word of life.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Syrian Alleluia STCW #34
led by Choir

GOSPEL: Mark 4:35-41

Deacon: The holy gospel according to Mark.
 Glory to you, O Lord.

Deacon: ³⁵On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, ‘Let us go across to the other side.’ ³⁶And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. ³⁷A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, ‘Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?’ ³⁹He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, ‘Peace! Be still!’ Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. ⁴⁰He said to them, ‘Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?’⁴¹ And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, ‘Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?’

The gospel of the Lord.
 Praise to you, O Christ.

We will.

Assisting Minister: Let us pray to God, who liberates us to reach out in love for the whole world responding to 'We are liberated by God's grace' with 'to be neighbour.'

Individual prayer petitions were prepared by the Youth Delegates.

Response: We are liberated by God's grace,
to be neighbour.

Assisting Minister: As we have heard what it means to be neighbour, we celebrate with our neighbour, the Province of Quebec, on this their National Holiday (Fête National), the feast day for St. John the Baptist. GREAT THANKSGIVING DIALOGUE AND PREFACE

B. Susan: The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right our duty and our joy
That we should at all times and in all places
Give thanks and praise to you.

We thank you, lifegiving God
For you never stop creating.
From the dawn of time, to our mother's womb,
even in the age to come,
Your creativity is as endless as eternity.

We thank you, Holy Spirit,
For you do not allow us to grow complacent.
Your stir up dreams and visions within us Making us restless for a new Heaven and a new Earth.

We thank you, Christ our Saviour
Word made into flesh.
You challenge us and teach us
That those we thought were strange and cut off
Are members in your holy body.

Therefore, with all of Israel's children,
and with all the saints across the ages,
of all cultures and race,
of all genders and faiths,
who have lived your truth and spoken your life
in the midst of this world's brokenness,
We praise your name, joyfully proclaiming:
