

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God, alt. text

A poignant poet is our God
Who writes the world with wonder
By spinning words in rainbow ways
Above, below and under.
God's joy comfort brings.
Wind and thunder sing
For just peace today.
God's Spirit is our stay
While reigning us with splendour.

A wondrous midwife is our God
Who tends our new creation,
God sees us safe inspiring us
By giving us our station.
With a place to be,
In God we are free
To serve where we are
And bear God's love afar!
So now we are God's passion!

A raging painter is our God
Who brooks no hesitation!
With colours flying everywhere
Beyond imagination.
Strong hues draw us in!
Bold lines shatter sin!
Using colours bright
God paints us in new light
We are God's own creation!
