

Theatre of Early Music presents: Bach Cantata Concert

The DAAD Canada Alumni Association and St. George's Lutheran Church are co-sponsors of a Bach cantata concert by the Theatre of Early Music on Friday, October 12, 7:30 pm at St. George's Lutheran Church, 410 College St, Toronto.

Cantatas BWV 4 "Christ lag in Todesbanden" and BWV 165 "O heil'ges Geist- und Wasserbad, will be performed by musicians from Tafelmusik and the Theatre of Early Music, the University of Toronto's Schola Cantorum and Collegium Musicum, with Adrian Butterfield, leader.

Sopranos: Julia Morison, Lindsay McIntrye, Sinéad White. Altos: Victoria Marshall, Ryan McDonald, Daniel Taylor. Tenors: Charles Daniels, Nick Veltmeyer. Basses: Adam Kuiack, Matthew Li, Daniel Lichti.

Tickets: $30, $20 (65+), $10 (students) from the Royal Conservatory of Music Box Office 416-408-0208

https://www.rcmusic.com/tickets/seats/91001?spektrix_bounce=true

Other sponsors: Theatre of Early Music, St. George's Lutheran Church, Consulate of the Federal Republic of Germany, Das Journal, The University of Toronto Historical Performance Area. The concert is made possible in part by a generous donation from Ethel Harris and supported by the Canadian Heritage Foundation and the Toronto Arts Council

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/events/489140178270820/>

More Information: Ralph Carl Wushke 416 532 8519 rwushke@yahoo.ca

Canada

Consulate General
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Toronto

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF MUSIC