Wisdom

Artist: Gerald Gloade

“The Mi’kmaq are the indigenous people of Mi’kma’ki, the Mi’kmaq homeland which includes all of present-day Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, central and eastern New Brunswick, the Gaspé Peninsula and Newfoundland. For at least the last 13,000 years our ancestors have called Mi’kma’ki home.

Our culture and language, Mi’kmaq, are rooted in our land and our people. We are closely related spiritually, culturally and linguistically to the First Nations in our region. We share many cultural traditions as well as linguistic roots with our neighbors, the Abenaki, Wolastoqiyik (Maliseet), Innu, Passamaquoddy, and Penobscot as well as many other Algonquian-speaking First Nations. Together these nations make up the Wabanaki Confederacy.” Source: <https://www.mikmaweydebert.ca/>

Kopit (Mi’kmaq) - Beaver

The beaver represents wisdom because it uses its natural gift wisely for survival. The beaver also alters its environment in an environmentally friendly and sustainable way for the benefit of his family.

To cherish knowledge is to know wisdom. Use your inherent gifts wisely and live your life by them. Recognize your differences and those of others in a kind and respectful way.

Continuously observe the life of all things around you. Listen with clarity and a sound mind. Respect your own limitations and those of all of your surroundings. Allow yourself to learn and live by your wisdom.

Can you help the
the way to the
